tated "the Civil War was four years of prolonged and bloody battles. At the outbreak of fighting, however, neither northerners nor southerners took the prospect another all that seriously." (Foote, 2001) The war Civil solved two of the main issues that had divided the United States since 1776. It also ended slavery that r abolished by the amendment 13 of the Constitution in 1865, deciding conclusively that United States is not a collection of independent States but one on.

Foote had always said to Americans that the was fundamental in our lives. Historians have been widely discussed about the possibilities that had the f the southern States to have won the War. The majority of the historians has also emphasized that the Union or the northern states had an insurmountable the Confederacy imv nn terms of technological development the percent of the population. Historian Shelby Foote also thought that the north had more to win ed by saying the following words "I think that North fought the war with one hand on the back, if there had been more southern victories, many more, the y would have removed the other hand from behind their back."I don't think south ever had the option to win. The Civil War will always be remembered by all merican Civil War was a one of the bloodiest conflict of the United States of America. Stared 1861 and ended in 1865.The two opposing sides were the forces of e North, (the Union), against the newly formed of the Confederate States of America composed by the eleven southern states (History Net). "At first glance it : 23 states that remained in the Union after secession were more than a match for the 11 Southern states." (www.britannica.com) The generals of the South were it it was not many and on top of that they did so many errors that make them lose in decisive battles that could have ended in victory.

the population of the North was about twenty and two million people compared to nine million people in the South three point five of whom were slaves. The
