Shelby Foote stated "the Civil War was four years of prolonged and bloody battles. At the outbreak of fighting, however, neither northerners nor southerners took the prospect of fighting one another all that seriously." (Foote, 2001) The war Civil solved two of the main issues that had divided the United States from 1776. It also put an end to slavery that was completely abolished by the amendment 13 of the Constitution in 1865, deciding once and for all that United States is not a collection of independent States but one indivisible nation.

Shelby Foote had always said to Americans that the was fundamental in our lives. Historians have been widely discussed about the possibilities that had the Confederacy of the southern States to have won the War. The majority of the historians has also emphasized that the Union or the northern states had an innumerable advantage over the Confederacy in terms of technological development the percent of the population. Historian Shelby Foote also thought that the south had more to win and he expressed his opinion the following words: "This...
